Checklist...

- File by December 29, 2023.
  - File for the property listed on the mailer only if it was the home you owned and occupied as your main home on October 1, 2020.
  - Report combined income if you and your spouse/civil union partner filed separate returns but maintained the same main home.
  - Check your bank routing number and account number carefully. The Division is not responsible for a lost benefit if you enter the wrong information for a direct deposit.
  - You have not filed your application until you receive a confirmation number. Verify all the information you entered before you hit the confirm button. If filing online, save or print the confirmation page as your proof of filing.
- You can expect to receive your benefit approximately 90 days after filing your application.
