16. Explanation of changes to information originally reported. Include the line number of each item you are changing.

17. Reason for withdrawing tenant homestead rebate application.

I am withdrawing my 2006 tenant homestead rebate application because:

- On October 1, 2006, my principal residence was not an apartment or other rental property that I rented and occupied.
- The principal residence that I rented and occupied on October 1, 2006, did not contain its own kitchen and bathroom facilities.
- The principal residence that I rented and occupied on October 1, 2006, was not subject to local property taxes.
- Other. Explain.

By completing this section you certify to the New Jersey Division of Taxation that you erroneously applied for a 2006 tenant homestead rebate and wish to withdraw your application, and that you understand that you are not eligible for a 2006 tenant homestead rebate. If you filed a joint application, both spouses must sign Form TR-1040-X.

WHEN TO USE FORM TR-1040-X

File this form:

- If you were a tenant on October 1, 2006, and you need to amend any of the information reported on your original 2006 tenant homestead rebate application (TR-1040).
or
- To withdraw a 2006 tenant homestead rebate application (TR-1040) that you filed in error.

It is not necessary to file Form TR-1040-X if you are filing an amended gross income tax return (Form NJ-1040X) and the changes you are making to your original return affect your tenant homestead rebate. The Division of Taxation will make any necessary changes to your TR-1040 and adjust the amount of your rebate.

You cannot file this form to:

- File an original 2006 tenant homestead rebate application.
or
- Amend a 2006 homeowner rebate application.

HOW TO USE FORM TR-1040-X

The information on this form should be the correct information on which your tenant homestead rebate claim is being based. If you are amending a tenant homestead rebate application, explain the changes to the information on your original Form TR-1040 at Line 16, Form TR-1040-X. If you are withdrawing a tenant homestead rebate application that you filed in error, indicate the reason at Line 17, Form TR-1040-X.

Use of Form TR-1040-X

You must use Form TR-1040-X to change any of the information reported on your original tenant homestead rebate application (Form TR-1040 or application that was filed electronically using NJ WebFile or approved vendor software), or to provide information that was missing from the original application. Fill out Form TR-1040-X completely, even if certain items are not being amended.

If you are not eligible for a 2006 tenant homestead rebate (see "Qualifications" below), but you filed a tenant rebate application in error, you can use Form TR-1040-X to withdraw your application. Complete only Line 17 to indicate the reason for withdrawing the application.

You cannot use Form TR-1040-X to:

- ◆ File an original 2006 tenant homestead rebate application.
- ◆ Amend a 2006 homeowner rebate application.

NOTE: It is not necessary to file Form TR-1040-X if you are filing an amended gross income tax return (NJ-1040X) and the changes you are making to your original return affect your tenant homestead rebate. The Division of Taxation will make any necessary changes to your TR-1040 and adjust the amount of your rebate.

Attachments to Form TR-1040-X

You must enclose proof of age or disability if you (or your spouse) were 65 years of age or older or blind or disabled on the last day of the 2006 tax year, but you did not indicate that fact on your original application. See page 3 for acceptable forms of proof.

Signatures

You must sign and date your amended tenant homestead rebate application (Form TR-1040-X) in blue or black ink. Both husband and wife must sign a joint amended application. An unsigned application cannot be processed.

Qualifications

To be eligible for a New Jersey homestead rebate as a tenant:

- ◆ You must have rented and occupied a home in New Jersey that was your principal residence on October 1, 2006; and
- ◆ Your gross income for the entire year must have been $100,000 or less; and
- ◆ Your principal residence must be subject to local property taxes, and property taxes must have been paid on that residence through rent; and
- ◆ Your dwelling unit must contain its own separate kitchen and bath facilities; and
- ◆ You must file a timely tenant homestead rebate application:
 - If you are filing Form NJ-1040, you must file Form TR-1040 and Form NJ-1040 by April 16, 2007.
 - If you use NJ WebFile or approved vendor software, you must complete the tenant rebate application portion of the return and file by April 16, 2007.
 - If you requested an extension of time to file your income tax return, you must file your return and tenant rebate application by the extended due date.
 - If you are filing only Form TR-1040, see "Rebate Only Filers" below.

Rebate Only Filers. A tenant who is not required to file a New Jersey income tax return because of income below the minimum filing threshold of $20,000 ($10,000 if filing status is single or married, filing separate return), and who meets the qualifications for a tenant homestead rebate, may file only Form TR-1040 to claim a rebate. It is not necessary to file the NJ-1040 along with the tenant rebate application. These residents have until October 31, 2007, to file Form TR-1040.

Part-Year Residents. A part-year resident who rented a principal residence on October 1, 2006, and meets all the eligibility requirements qualifies for a tenant rebate. Part-year residents must enter their full-year income from all sources on Line 9 of Form TR-1040.

Married, Filing Separate Return. If your filing status is married, filing separate return and you maintain the same principal residence as your spouse, you must combine your gross income with your spouse's gross income when applying for the rebate. Neither you nor your spouse can receive more than one-half of the rebate that you would receive if you filed a joint return. Both you and your spouse must file Form TR-1040 to be eligible to receive up to one-half of the rebate.

Principal Residence. A principal residence means a homestead, actually and continually occupied as your permanent residence. No rebate will be granted for a vacation home or a "second home."

Mobile Homes. If you own or rent a mobile home which is located in a mobile home park, you are considered a tenant for purposes of the rebate. For more information on mobile homes, contact the Division's Customer Service Center.

Condominiums and Co-ops. If you rent a condominium unit or a unit in a cooperative housing complex, you are considered a tenant for purposes of applying for the rebate. If you are a resident shareholder of a cooperative housing complex or you own a condominium and you pay property taxes on your unit, you are considered a homeowner for purposes of applying for the rebate. If you were a homeowner on October 1, 2006, and you filed a 2006 tenant homestead rebate application in error, you must file Form TR-1040-X to withdraw your original application.

Continuing Care Retirement Communities. If you are a resident of a continuing care retirement community and your continuing care contract requires you to bear the proportionate share of property taxes attributable to your unit, you are considered a homeowner for purposes of applying for the rebate. If you were a homeowner on October 1, 2006, and you filed a 2006 tenant homestead rebate application in error, you must file Form TR-1040-X to withdraw your original application.

Identification Section

Name and Address

Print or type your name (last name first), complete address, and zip code in the spaces provided. Also include your spouse's name if filing jointly.

Tax-Exempt, Subsidized, and Campus Housing

One of the qualifications for the New Jersey homestead rebate is that property taxes be paid on the applicant's principal residence, either directly or through rent. Thus, tenants living in dwellings which are not subject to local property taxes are not eligible for the rebate. This includes:

- ◆ Tenants living in dwellings owned by the State, County, Municipal, or Federal Government;
- ◆ Students living in on-campus apartments at State colleges and universities;
- ◆ Tenants living in dwellings owned by a religious, charitable, or other nonprofit organization (including on-campus apartments at private, nonprofit colleges and universities), if the property is exempt from property taxes; and
- ◆ Tenants living in dwellings on which P.I.L.O.T. (Payments-in-Lieu-of-Tax) payments are made to the municipality. These payments are not considered property taxes for purposes of the homestead rebate.

If the dwelling you rent is not subject to local property taxes, you do not qualify for a rebate. File Form TR-1040-X to withdraw your original tenant homestead rebate application. If you are not sure whether the dwelling you rent is subject to local property taxes, contact your municipal tax assessor for information. The Division of Taxation audits returns to ensure that only qualified applicants receive rebates.

Enter your social security number(s) in the space provided. If your filing status is married, filing joint return, remember to report both spouses' numbers in the order in which the names are listed on the return. If you (or your spouse) do not have a social security number, see the resident income tax return instruction booklet.

If you are amending your tenant rebate application to indicate that you (or your spouse) are blind or disabled, you must enclose a copy of the doctor’s certificate or other medical records evidencing legal blindness or total and permanent disability. If you submitted proof of disability with your original application, you do not need to resubmit this information with Form TR-1040-X.
